6. Motions:

- a. Who may make motions:
Motions may be presented (“moved”) by any member in good standing
- b. Nature of motions before the membership (list does not include all motions which can be considered by the board, but can serve as a guideline):
  - i. To approve an increase of membership dues greater than 25%
  - ii. To approve revised bylaws
  - iii. To amend the bylaws
  - iv. To remove a board member for cause
  - v. To remove a member for cause
  - vi. To direct the board to take a particular action
- c. Presentation of motions to the membership:
  - i. Motions must be presented to the board and relevant committee(s) in writing by email twenty-one (21) days in advance of the annual meeting in which it is to be considered.
  - ii. The board members shall contribute to the discussion by providing opinions and relevant information to the issue.
  - iii. Further discussion for motions for consideration during annual meetings will be limited to 3 statements in support and 3 statements in opposition to the motion.
  - iv. Refer to Robert’s Rules of Order for any rules that are not included in this manual for motions.
- c. Motion Format
  - i. Motion language
  - ii. “That SCRID (add motion here).”

- iii. The motion should be no more than 2 sentences long
  - iv. A background and rationale are helpful for the membership to understand the purpose, scope and effect of the motion, but is not required
  - v. Motions that approve of expenditures should include a maximum dollar amount
  - vi. Include the name of the motion maker (must be a member eligible to vote)
  - vii. The secretary will add the seconder to the motion as part of the meeting minutes
  - viii. The secretary will record Ayes/Noes/Absentions (X/X/X) to be included as part of the meeting minutes
- d. Process for voting on motions in meetings:
- i. Introduction of the motion: The presider of the meeting shall read the motion number and text of the motion (not the background or rationale).
  - ii. A seconder will be requested (required for further consideration)
  - iii. The floor will be opened for discussion (see 4c, above)
  - iv. At conclusion of discussion, a vote will be called and tallied
  - v. The presider shall announce whether the motion passed or failed and is recorded for the minutes
  - vi. Addendums are permissible, following RRO procedures (including referring the motion to committee to be revisited in the following year's meeting)

7. Reports (Board members and Committee Chairs):

- a. Annual Reports must be submitted to the secretary seven (7) days prior to the annual meeting.

SCRID Language Usage Policy Proposal – Policies and Procedures Manual

Motion 20170513.1 approved at the May 13, 2017 annual SCRID membership meeting

This "Language Usage Policy" shall be in effect whenever possible for all events, meetings, trainings, and other occasions as deemed to be SCRID activities by the SCRID Board of Directors. In our effort to be inclusive, we understand that there may be times when it is necessary to use interpreters/transliterators to allow for communication access when it would not be possible otherwise. [...exception examples and procedures to request an exception can be found in the Language Usage Policy section of the Policies and Procedures Manual].
